

Detailed information on the activities that Banco Santander is offering football fans for the Champions League final in Madrid

- There will be plenty of activities from Thursday to Sunday.

Madrid, 28 May 2019 - PRESS RELEASE

Banco Santander, UEFA Champions League sponsor, will act as host for the final of the competition between Liverpool FC and Tottenham Hotspur FC, which will be played in the Metropolitano Stadium in Madrid, on 1 June. The bank has organised numerous activities around the city to assist both local fans and those visiting from abroad, as Santander together with Ronaldo Nazário, the bank's ambassador, announced two weeks ago. Here are all the details:

- Santander Volunteers. The bank will have almost 1,000 volunteers available to assist fans. These will be Santander customers and employees, or any local citizen that wishes to participate. They will be located at key points around the city to, among other things, give out maps, provide information and support the Bank's various activities.
 - Where: Airports, rail and underground stations, tourist attractions, certain Santander branches, etc.
 - When: Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
- Santander branches. Santander will open the doors of several of its branches on the Thursday, Friday and Saturday before the final to offer fans a number of support services or to act as a meeting and information point.
 - Where: The two Santander Work Cafés located at Sagrados Corazones, 1, and Velázquez, 31; which have mobile phone charging stations and high-speed Wi-Fi, and sun visors will also be handed out. There will be free coffee for Santander customers from any part of the world.
 - When: Thursday and Friday from 09.00 to 19.00; Saturday 10.00 to 16.00.
 - NB: The Smart Red branches at Alcalá, 28 and Gran Vía, 80, will also be open on Thursday and Friday from 09.00 to 14.00 as meeting points and to give away sun visors.
- Santander Arena in the Plaza Mayor. The bank will have a stand at the Champions Festival in the Plaza Mayor, where fans can enjoy a 360° immersive experience of the greatest moments in Champions League history.
 - Where: Plaza Mayor.
 - When: Thursday and Friday from 11.00 to 00.00; Saturday from 11.00 to 18.00 and Sunday from 11.00 to 22.00.
- Santander buses There will be three tour buses going round the city, taking passengers to the places that help make Madrid one of the most football-mad cities in the world: the Santiago Bernabéu Stadium, the Cibeles and Neptune fountains, etc.

- Where: Santander Work Café branch at Sagrados Corazones, 1 (opposite the Santiago Bernabéu Stadium), Plaza de Colón, Cibeles, Neptuno, Santander Work Café branch at Velázquez, 31.
 - When: Friday from 11.00 to 20.00; Saturday 10.00 to 14.30. Free.
 - NB: There will also be a shuttle-bus service available for Santander customers from Plaza de Colon to the Metropolitano Stadium on Saturday, between 15:30 and 19:30.
- Walking tours. For those who prefer to get around on foot, the classic free walking tours of Madrid will also include a number of special football-related stops.
 - Where: Check on www.madridapie.com
 - When: Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday at 11.00, 17.30, 18.00 and 20.00.
- Santander Media House. In partnership with Movistar. A space from which television and other media can broadcast live or record programmes from an historic landmark in the centre of Madrid's old town: Plaza de la Villa. The bank will also arrange for the media to interview legendary football players and managers. There will also be a huge number of activities for fans to enjoy.
 - Where: Plaza de la Villa.
 - When: Thursday and Friday from 12.00 to 00.00; Saturday 12.00 to 18.00.
- The Santander Influencer Cup. A football match with the participation of 10 global influencers.
 - Where: Plaza Mayor.
 - When: Friday at 19.30.
- Santander #FootballCan match. A football match organised with certain NGOs that the Bank works with.
 - Where: Plaza Mayor.
 - When: Thursday at 11.00.